- A student shall not commit or cause breach of peace inside and around the College campus.
- Students are prohibited from indulging in games, even in small groups, anywhere in the College premises during teaching hours.
- Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited. Disciplinary action will be taken against those who violate this rule. It is mandatory for all students and guardians to sign an affidavit in the pro forma prescribed by the UGC related to ragging.
- Any damage or defacement of college property is a punishable offence.
- Habitual misconduct/repeated breach of the College Rules & Regulation will be considered as a grave offence and will result in suspension/expulsion of the student with immediate effect.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity refers to an essential quality that an institution must uphold to fulfil its academic objectives and research mission, and hence its violation constitutes a serious offence. The principles of academic integrity form an integral part of the code of conduct to which all the students of the institution must adhere. Breach of this code puts into question both the reputation of the Institution and the value of the degree awarded to the students. Every student of the Institution should be responsible to ensure the highest quality of the academic integrity.

The principles of academic integrity require that a student should:

- Properly acknowledge and cite use of ideas, results, materials onwards of others.
- Properly acknowledge all contributions to a given piece of work.
- Make sure that all assignments submitted are original.
- Perform academic activities without the aid of impermissible materials or collaboration and by obtaining all data or results through ethical means.
- Have right to pursue their educational goals without interference.

Violation of this policy includes but not limited to:

- Plagiarism: Plagiarism is the unethical use of data, idea, materials, figures or codes as one's own without properly acknowledging the original source. Example of Plagiarism includes: (i) Reproducing fully or partially, verbatim or paraphrased, texts/ sentences from a report, book, thesis, publication of others without proper citation. (ii) Reproducing one's, previously published data, figure, material, graphs, drawings, photographs, diagrams, tables, spreadsheets, computer programme or those published by other persons, without citing the original source into one's class reports, presentations, manuscripts, research paper or thesis. (iii) Submitting a purchased or downloaded term paper or other material to satisfy a course requirement.
- Cheating: Cheating includes but not limited to (i) copying during examinations and copying of homework assignments term papers, these or manuscript. (ii) Allowing or facilitating copying or making proxy in examination or writing assignment for someone else. (iii) Using unfair means or collaborating unethically during examination or in assignment. (iv) Fabricating or falsifying data and reporting them in thesis and publication. (v) Creating sources or citation that does not exist. (vi) Altering previously submitted work for new submission. (vii) Signing with another student's name on exam paper, assignment, thesis, attendance sheet or manuscript.

- Conflict of Interest: Clash of personal interest with professional activity can lead to potential clash of interest in diverse activities such as teaching, research, publication, working on committees, research, funding and consultancy. It is necessary to protect professional objectivity and transparency to avoid class of interest not only in financial matter but also in the professional activity related to academia.

Anti-Ragging

The Institution implemented a strict and effective anti-ragging policy based on the UGC Regulation on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institution, 2009. This UGC Regulation was framed in accordance with the directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India to prevent and prohibit ragging in all Indian Educational Institutions and Colleges.

Ragging constitutes one or more of the following acts:

- Any conduct by any student or group of students –whether through spoken/written words/ physical act-which has the effect of fearing or misbehaving with any student.
- Indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities or asking any student to do any act which such student will not in ordinary course do and thereby causes shame, annoyance, torment, hardship, embarrassment which inflict intense psychological harm or raise fear on apprehension in any student.

- Any act by senior students that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any student.
- Any act of financial extortion put on any student.
- Any act of physical abuse including sexual abuse, stripping, forcing in lewd acts or gestures causing bodily harm to any student.
- Any act of verbal or written abuse such as calling foul names, insulting publicly, offensive emails which embarrass, annoy and discomfort any student.

Anti-ragging Committee

This committee shall examine all complaints of anti-ragging and come out with recommendations based on the nature of the incident and proper investigation.

Disciplinary Measures against the Act of Ragging:

A student or group of students found guilty by the anti-ragging committee will attract one or more of the following disciplinary actions by the college authority:

- Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges.
- Withholding / withdrawing scholarship/ fellowship and other benefits.
- Debarring from appearing in any test/examination or other evaluation process.
- Withholding results.
- Debarring from undertaking any collaborative work or attending national or international conferences/symposia/meetings to present his/her research work.
- Suspension/expulsion from the hostels and mess.
- Cancellation of examination.

- Expulsion from a specified institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution for a specified period.
- If need be, in view of the intensity of the act of ragging committed, a First Information Report (FIR) shall be filed by the Institute with the local police authorities. The Anti-Ragging Committee of the Institute shall take appropriate decision, including imposition of punishment, depending on the facts and circumstances of each incident of ragging and nature and gravity of the incident of ragging.
